Dear domain holder,

To simplify our administration and optimize our service to our customers, we will change the registrar of your .be domain(s).

You will not notice anything from this change: your domain name will continue to function as it always did, the expiration date remains unchanged, and no costs apply to this change.

If you want to transfer your domain(s) to another registrar, you can do so at any moment. However, the new registrar will charge for such a transfer. Kind regards, Your domain registrar

Kind regards,

Your Domain Name Registrar
